SCOOT AVAILABILITY TO EAST ASIA

Scoot (TR) offers a variety of connecting flights ex/to Singapore, which can be booked in combination with Singapore Airlines (SQ) on long-haul routes. Scoot’s network currently comprises over 70 destinations and offers good availability within Asia during the winter and summer schedules. From the European SQ hubs, there are various connections on the outbound and/or inbound flights, especially to China and Japan.

Tip: There are good TR connections between Kunming, China and Frankfurt (FRA) four times a week via Singapore (SIN).

Example for TR frequencies SIN-KMG-FRA on 09.06.25

Flight number	Departure	Arrival
TR0161/ SQ8451	03:00 (KMG)	07:00 (SIN)
SQ326	10:55 (SIN)	18:00 (FRA)

Tip: Book SQ codeshare on flights operated by Scoot.

SINGAPORE AIRLINES ELEVATES CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE WITH $45 MILLION INVESTMENT IN CHANGI AIRPORT TERMINAL 2 LOUNGES

Singapore Airlines will transform its SilverKris and KrisFlyer Gold lounges at Singapore Changi Airport Terminal 2 over the next two years, investing S$45 million to elevate the on-ground customer experience at its main hub.

Renovations started on 15. April 2025 with completion expected by mid-2027. The new lounges will offer 50 percent more space and seating, plus enhanced facilities and Food & Beverage options.

The First Class SilverKris Lounge will feature a spacious area with higher ceilings, floor-to-ceiling windows, a premium bar with morning barista service, live cooking stations, and an expanded buffet. The Business Class SilverKris Lounge will see a 30 percent expansion, including a quiet rest area, diverse seating options, a new full-service bar, and an expanded buffet. The KrisFlyer Gold Lounge will double its capacity, offering various seating options, new restrooms, and shower suites.

The renovation schedule is as follows: First Class SilverKris Lounge from April 2025 to Q4 2025, Business Class SilverKris Lounge starting Q4 2025, and KrisFlyer Gold Lounge beginning in the first half of 2026.

These upgrades will significantly enhance the pre-flight experience for our mutual guests.
